President's Message

A big thanks to Guanaba CMC who were our guest club last month. As usual they entertained us with a top notch show.

This month we are looking forward to West Morton as our visiting club. With Pattie Anderson as our starring member we can be sure of a great day.

The time for our AGM is upon us once again. All positions will be declared vacant. If you are interested in any position on the committee, nomination forms are available on line @ www.lobeau.com. All members are encouraged to attend the AGM and put any ideas for our club forward.

Planning is well under way for the Logan Village Country Music Festival

Unfortunately this does clash with some other events but will be a great day with markets, food stalls, kids rides etc.

Finally membership renewals are due.

Mick Wood

President

Secretary's Message

Hi Members,

Well it's that time of year again when clubs like us have their AGM. We are just awaiting confirmation of a date from the RSL before we release the date to the members. However we hope it will be around the middle of August. Nomination forms for officials and committee members are available from me or Lesley on the day of our social. We hope you will take the opportunity to come along to the AGM when you will have an opportunity to have a say in the Club's future. AS Mick mentioned, Memberships are now due. The membership fees are unchanged. Please note that you need to be a financial member to have a vote at the AGM

Looks as though the Logan Village Country Music Festival on 13th September is going to be a huge event. Hope you come along and support Lobeau. Kenny's Ruby Ukles will also be appearing.

David Elsdon

Secretary

Please note that the RSL has advised us that we can't have our usual 4th Sunday social on 27th September as they have booked another event.

However, we will be having the September social a week later, on 4th October. Twin Rivers have kindly agreed to visit us on this later date.

Monthly Funnies

After 35 years of marriage, a husband and wife sought counselling. When asked what the problem was, the wife went into a tirade listing every problem they had ever had in the years they had been married. On and on and on: neglect, lack of intimacy, emptiness, loneliness, feeling unloved and unlovable, an entire laundry list of un-met needs she had endured. Finally, after allowing this for a sufficient length of time, the therapist rose from his seat, walked around the desk and after asking the wife to stand, he embraced and kissed her long and passionately as her husband watched - with a raised eyebrow. The woman shut up and quietly sat down in a daze.

The therapist turned to the husband and said, "This is what your wife needs at least 3 times a week. Can you do this?"

Well, I can drop her off here on Mondays and Wednesdays,But I fish on Fridays.

Kia Ora you fullahs (and giddy dingos)

Three Australians and three Maoris are travelling by train to a Rugby match at the World Cup in England. At the station, the three Aussies each buy a ticket and watch as the three Maoris buy just one ticket between them. "How are the three of you going to travel on only one ticket?" asks one of the Aussies. "Watch and learn, bro," answers one of the Maoris. They all board the train. The Aussies take their respective seats but all three Maoris cram into a toilet and close the door behind them.

Shortly after the train has departed, the conductor comes around collecting tickets. He knocks on the toilet door and says, "Ticket please." The door opens just a crack and a single arm emerges with a ticket in hand. The conductor takes the ticket and moves on. The Aussies see this and agree it was quite a clever idea. So, after the game, they decide to go one better on the return trip and save some money (being clever with money, and all that). When they get to the station for the return trip, the Maoris again buy a single ticket between them. To their astonishment, the Aussies don't buy a ticket at all!! "How are you going to travel without a ticket?" asks one perplexed Maori. "Watch and learn, bro," answers an Aussie. When they board the train the three Aussies cram into a toilet, and soon after the three Maoris cram into another nearby, and the train duly departs. Shortly afterwards, one of the Aussies leaves the toilet and walks over to the toilet where the Maoris are hiding. He knocks on the door and says, "Ticket please."

Guidelines For on Stage Performers/Band Members

In order to ensure a smooth and enjoyable day, the following guidelines must be followed.

Club's Monthly Social

- If you wish to sing (perform) you need to supply 3 copies of chord charts to the band. You also need to register on the day with the stage co-ordinator.
- The stage co-ordinator will arrange the order of appearance. This usually corresponds to order of arrival/registration.
 - Stage co-ordinator to arrange backing band / bands.
- Backing band to be financial members. This can be varied to include members of other clubs if there are no club members available. This must be with the approval of the stage co-ordinator.
 - Visitors/members are welcome to request to play as a group.
- The Band: - give the band every opportunity to learn your music, so that they can do their best on performance day. Have your music ready, in the right key and written out clearly with no errors.

Performances at other clubs or outside events

- When representing the club as guests at other clubs or at special functions the following also applies.
- Preference will be given to financial members who have nominated our club as their primary or only club
- Potential band members wishing to perform as part of the club will need to consult with the stage co-ordinator before being accepted.
- Practice with other band members will be arranged from time to time on an as needs basis
